

Miriam Naliaka Wanjala

My name is Miriam Naliaka Wanjala. I was born in 2007. I am the first born in the family of 4 children. I used to live in Naivasha with Church members who volunteered to take care of my siblings and me. It's believed that my mother ran away from us when we were very young. Even though I don't know my parents, I yearn to see them one day and give them a hug. I miss them.

I have been staying in church ever since I was very young and praying has been like daily food to me. One day, I was moved to share my story with the Church Bishop and he was touched and decided to accompany with him to his Home in Bungoma. He took me to Luuya R.C primary until I did my national test. While I was in Luuya Primary, I participated in various clubs and societies like debates and agriculture.

At the moment I am not sure what I want to do after I graduate but whatever I decide I know I will need to work very hard to achieve it. I know God will help me.

Yours sincerely

Miriam Naliaka Wanjala
